Alma Mater

The Story we would tell you, friends,
    Would cover many a book;
The subject matter of the same
    Is found in every nook
Of old S. U.'s broad campus,
    The common battleground,
Whose trees might whisper secrets grave,
    Amusing, and profound.

Chorus

Of Susquehanna now we sing;
Let Susquehanna's praises ring;
Loyal to her by night and by noon,
We'll raise the Orange and Maroon;
Loyal to her by night and by noon,
We'll raise the Orange and Maroon.

How dear to one and all the name
    Their Alma Mater bears,
When they have left its classic halls,
    To shoulder worldly cares,
Of winning maids and noble lords
    Of dear old college days,
Come join in recollections fond,
    And tell us of your ways.

In classroom and on gridiron, friends,
    S. U. will stand the test;
Defeat to her a word unknown,
    Her motto, "Do your best."
With vim, then let us give the yell;
    Display her banner bright,
That all may know of old S. U.
    She stands for God and Right.

"All one's life is music, if one touches the notes rightly, and in time."

—RUSKIN

Through the ages music has become for mankind the noblest and purest of arts. What magnificence the musical genius of the world has created from invisible sound! Beautiful, melodious strains have the power of penetrating and melting human hearts, enriching them with an overflow of emotional ecstasy.

Our task is to appreciate more deeply the language of melody, for it develops character and adds to life. Life is like a song: it has both high notes and low notes, but always there is harmony if we wish to find it.

We at Susquehanna are looking forward with great anticipation and eagerness to a new music building. May our dream soon become reality! Because of its countless contributions on our campus, Susquehanna's department of music truly merits a new home.

As seniors, we are fast nearing the goal toward which we have striven for the past four years. Upon leaving Susquehanna, we carry with us many pleasant memories of our activities throughout those years. With these memories, we would also take the words of Disraeli, "The secret of success is constancy of purpose," that we might realize a new goal and be prompted to reach that goal by setting a course and following it.

For those who follow us, we leave this thought: The time to work is now. The way to succeed is to forget yesterday, keep busy today, and expect great things tomorrow.

OFFICERS

President	- - - - -	REUBEN HENRY
Vice-President	- - - - -	- SAMUEL ROSS

Now that we are juniors, we realize that we are rapidly approaching the peak of our college careers. These three happy and prosperous years at Susquehanna have contributed greatly toward the molding of each student's character and toward his preparation for an enriched life of service to mankind. Through our associations and adjustments in these three years, we have become a part of our alma mater just as it has become a part of us. May our final year at Susquehanna be another profitable step on the path which guides us toward a wise and intelligent approach to the problems and challenges confronting us in life!

We, the Class of 1954, sincerely hope that these pages will present a panorama of life here at Susquehanna and that all who read them may acquire a deeper appreciation of the traditions and ideals close to the heart of every student at old S. U.—old in years but young in vitality.

After completing two years at Susquehanna University we, the Class of 1955, have learned the true meaning and value of education. This training has taught us to emphasize discipline and development by means of studying and learning.

The world today could be compared to a room with two doors, the first an opening to ignorance and stagnancy, the second the door to the horizon of achievement. Susquehanna holds the key to the second door. As sophomores we have learned to grasp this key and place it in the door of advancement.

We have come to love this university; she is our guide, comforter, friend, and leader. She gives us the confidence needed to enter the door of the future, to face it with deliberation and the realization that the key to any achievement is education.

The freshman class of old S. U.
Is pleased to be a part
Of the great Crusader family
So close to every heart.

We've found a goal to strive for
And in our future strife
'T will be S. U. that guides us on
To better things in life.

We salute our Susquehanna
And raise our hearts to pray
That we may bear her standards
To greater heights some day.

HOMECOMING QUEEN
RUTH FREED

Women's Student Council

OFFICERS

President - - - - JOYCE WAGNER
Secretary-Treasurer - - HILLY VONLYNN

The Women's Student Council attempts to keep harmony among the "femme fatale" of the campus. The Council tries to lessen the sophomore severity during freshman hazing. It also sponsors the Parents' Day activities, Homecoming Queen elections, and social dancing.

The members of the Council are the presidents of the two dormitories, the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, the social chairman, and a representative from the S. C. A., the W. A. A., the Women Day Students' Organization, the Panhellenic Council, and the freshman and sophomore classes.

Men's Student Council

OFFICERS

President - - - - DAVID BENNETT
Vice-President - - - - REUBEN HENRY
Secretary - - - - ORVILLE LAUVER
Treasurer - - - - ROBERT WYLLIE

The Men's Student Council is "the law" as far as the men on the Susquehanna campus are concerned. It serves as a mediator between the men and the administration; creates, supervises, and regulates all the customs and traditions associated with the men of the college; effects a closer union among students; and investigates appeals brought before the Council by students.

Membership in the Council includes two men from each fraternity, two men from the non-fraternity group, and one faculty adviser.

Judiciary Committee

Chairman - - - - MARY ANN DIXON
President of Student Council — JOYCE WAGNER
House Presidents
 RUTH FREED, SHIRLEY THOMPSON

The Judiciary Committee is the strong arm of the law for women on the campus. It penalizes any who have violated the Women's Student Council regulations. The Committee acts as a disciplinary force in an attempt to prevent rule-breaking.

Those who belong to this group are the presidents of the women's dormitories, the president of the Women's Student Council, representatives from each class, and the Dean of Women as an ex-officio member.

Vice-Presidents' Council

Ten years ago the Vice-Presidents' Council was organized with an eye to maintaining quiet in the girls' dorms during the designated study hours. Perfect peace and quiet will never come in our lifetime, but at least these girls help to curb the noise. The Seibert Hall House President appoints the "VP's" and authorizes them to give a penalty of five minutes each time an offense is committed. When twenty minutes are recorded, the offender must appear before the Women's Judiciary Committee which will mete out the punishment. Six girls in Seibert Hall and the junior counselors in Hassinger Hall act as "VP's."

In the fall, a picnic is planned for all non-sorority girls, and the Homecoming Dance is sponsored in conjunction with the Fraternity Senate. The council also establishes rushing rules and sponsors the Pledge Dance in February.

The Susquehanna University Players

The Little Theater was the scene of the most successful Shakespearean Festival held on the Susquehanna campus when "The Merchant of Venice" was presented to capacity audiences for two successive weeks. The prime function of the festival is to give the students at Susquehanna a better understanding of Shakespeare and his works. It is also used as entertainment, part of an academic and cultural program, and publicity for Susquehanna University.

Night after night audiences were thrilled by the tender lines of Portia and Bassanio and the scheming lines of Shylock. Outstanding performances were given by all the actors and actresses which became evident as the curtain fell to roaring applause. After the final performance pretty bouquets, which were presented to the leading ladies, added a final touch of splendor to a thrilling Shakespearean Festival.

The Susquehanna Players scored another success when "Two Blind Mice" made its bow before the Susquehanna footlights. This State Department satire was quite amusing and comical, and the audiences were well pleased with a delightful evening of entertainment. Outstanding performances were given by the actors and actresses, and many newcomers made their debut on the Susquehanna stage.

The Susquehanna Players presented "Craig's Wife," a melodrama, for their February production. The season closed with the presentation of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" during the Shakespearean Festival.

Once again the curtain rings down on a successful football season here at S. U. The Crusaders, ably coached by A. A. Stagg, Jr. and his famous father, the Grand Old Man of Football, turned in a commendable 1952 season by winning four out of seven games. The season was both eventful and exciting and a few breaks either way could have turned a successful season into a perfect one.

To have a good team such as ours has been is one thing, and to have a good coach is another, but when a school has the greatest coach in America, his son, and a good team, it has an unbeatable combination.

Many players about whom you will read in the following pages will not be on the roster of S. U. when the next gridiron season rolls around, but their noble efforts, which they so ably displayed, will live forever in the annals of sport history at S. U.

Coach Stagg, Sr., now ninety years of age, expressed the sentiment of the entire student body when he said to the team, as they bade him farewell to his California home, "God bless you boys. We love you all."

NATIONAL AGGIES 0 SUSQUEHANNA 26

The Stagmen initiated their 1952 football campaign by trouncing the National Agricultural Institute, 26-0. Sparked by Walter and Little All-American Young, the Crusaders recorded a tally in each period. Walter drove for two touchdowns and accounted for two hundred and nine yards from scrimmage before he was given a rest late in the third period. The Crusaders ploughed through for their first score with seconds remaining in the first period. Young converted the extra point. A Young pass to Ross accounted for S. U.'s second touchdown. Walter smashed over center in the third period to make the score 19-0. Young's placement was good. The Crusaders' final score came in the last period when Ross' pass to Rising in the end-zone was completed. A hard-charging Crusader line prevented the Aggies from obtaining a first down until midway into the third period.

URSINUS 0                      SUSQUEHANNA 16

The Crusaders chalked up another victory by a decisive win over the Ursinus Bears before a Parents' Day crowd of two thousand at University Field. This win lengthened S. U.'s victory streak to a total of eight, while the unbeaten record stood at eleven. This is the longest winning streak in the history of the Orange and Maroon. Sparked by Don Walter, the S. U. eleven recorded their first score on the first play of the second period. Young added the bonus point from placement. A bad pass from center on the part of Ursinus gave the Stagmen a safety. A spectacular catch by Rising gave the Crusaders their final touchdown. The rock-like Crusader line was sparked by the brilliant play of Gene Brouse.

SWARTHMORE 20                      SUSQUEHANNA 24

The Susquehanna Crusaders gained their ninth straight victory and increased their undefeated string to twelve games by topping Swarthmore College 24-20 at Swarthmore. The pass combination of Young to Rising, sparked by the performance of Jim Dell, accounted for S. U.'s first score. Young's conversion added the bonus point. A blocked kick by Brouse opened the way to S. U.'s second score which ended in an eight yard plunge by Don Walter. S. U.'s final tally came in the closing seconds of the first half when Young's thirty-eight-yard pass to Torok paid off. Young's placement ended S. U.'s scoring for the day. Swarthmore dominated play in the second half, but a hard charging Crusader line, led by Brouse and frosh Art Leonard, turned back the Garnets' last futile attempt and gave the Crusaders a well-earned victory.

JOHNS HOPKINS 28 SUSQUEHANNA 20

S. U.'s unbeaten victory string came to an abrupt end as the team was trounced by a superior Johns Hopkins eleven and a speedy halfback named Ed Sempler. In displaying a wide open offense, the Blue Jays marched eighty yards to draw first blood. S. U. became the victim of father time as Young's pass to Stamm left the Crusaders one foot from the promised land at the close of the first half. Passes from Young to Rising accounted for S. U.'s first two scores, while a plunge by Young ended the Crusaders' scoring for the day. Even in defeat, Balchen, Torok, Young, and Rising turned in an outstanding performance. S. U. suffered another blow in this game when the versatile halfback, Kay Campbell, received a severe knee injury.

JUNIATA 12 SUSQUEHANNA 7

Before a Homecoming crowd of three thousand at University Field, S. U. suffered its second setback of the season. After scoring late in the first period on a miraculous catch by Rising and a conversion by Young, S. U. led 7-0. It was well into the third period before the Indians displayed their first serious offensive threat, but a stone-wall defense sparked by Flowers, Bennett, and Dikovicky prevented a score. The Indians, however, were not to be denied, and a pass from Segalovich to Wampler gave the visitors their first score. S. U.'s hopes remained high as the try for the extra point failed. An interception by Juniata gave the Indians a 12-7 lead. The Orange and Maroon team then started the most thrilling "do or die" marches ever witnessed on University Field, and the close of the game found S. U. knocking on the Juniata goal line. Livermore, Szabo, MacNamara, and Tkaczyk proved themselves able linemen.

WAGNER 32                      SUSQUEHANNA 26

The Stag men were defeated for the third time as a disputed pass completion gave the Wagner Sea Hawks a hard fought victory. S. U., led by the brilliant passing of Sam Ross, who took the place of the injured Young, tied the score with three minutes remaining in the game. But the Sea Hawks, inspired by a partisan Homecoming crowd, scored with seconds remaining in the game. The Susquehanna team returned from Staten Island defeated but not outplayed.

HAVIRFORD 14                      SUSQUEHANNA 47

S. U.'s Crusaders ended their 1952 football season with a convincing victory over the Haverford Fords before a rain-drenched crowd at Crusader Field. Exhibiting the razzle-dazzle Stag technique, the Crusaders, fired by the passing wizardry of Sam Ross, completely out-classed the hapless Fords. Playing their last game for S. U. in fine fashion were such standouts as Rich Young, Bob MacNamara, Gene Brouse, Tom Balchen, Tony Dikovicky, Steve Torok, and Don Walter, not to mention the injured Kay Campbell who was lost during mid-season. College football is over for these stalwart performers of S. U., but the happy memories which they shared with the many loyal S. U. followers will never be forgotten.

Court Echoes

Despite the lack of height, the S. U. cagemen initiated the basketball season with an impressive victory over the National Aggies of Doylestown. Spearheaded by seniors Ned Condon and Bob Wyllie, plus several new freshman personalities, the Pfeiffer-coached five had hopes of topping last year's mediocre record, but the scores cannot be denied, and S. U. ended on the losing side of the slate.

Hits of the Season

Susquehanna started its baseball season in fine fashion, but a combination of tough breaks and erratic pitching in spots accounted for a total of seven losses. Ned Condon led the pitching staff while Don Berninger, Rich Young, and Chet Rowe captured batting honors. The highlight of the season was S. U.'s victory over Lebanon Valley.

Tau Kappa is a national honorary athletic sorority for women. Any girl who obtains seven hundred points in intramural sports is entitled to membership in Tau Kappa. The purpose of the sorority is to encourage girls to participate in sports and to show good sportsmanship in games. Its main social event this year was the Snowball Dance.

Intramural Board

Harmony is necessary in all sports. Here at Susquehanna an organization known as the Intramural Board regulates and is responsible for the sports program within the school. Under the able leadership of Coach Stagg, this organization has become an indispensable part of our sports system.

Girls' Sports

After several unsuccessful seasons, the girls' Honor Hockey Team, pictured above, brought victory to Susquehanna last fall during the hockey Play Day at Bucknell. The climax of the hockey season is the annual game with the alumnae on Homecoming Day.

Besides hockey, points are awarded for participation in numerous other sports, such as soccer, volleyball, basketball, ping pong, archery, tennis, softball, swimming, and bowling. Points gained through recreational and competitive intramural sports admit a girl into membership in the Women's Athletic Association.

MAY DAY

"Western Fiesta" was the theme of the May Day festivities given in honor of 1952 Queen Ann Guise and her court. Queen Ann reigned, attended by her Maid of Honor, Marjorie Way, and her royal court composed of six senior girls, Peggy Aston, Barbara Easton, Lynne Lightfoot, Ethel McGrath, Jacqueline McKeever, and Ruth Roslander.

After the processional to the throne, Queen Ann and her court were entertained by western folk with many songs and dances. The crowds which had gathered were entertained by the lovely vocal selections and the novel western dances. The highlight of the celebration was the picturesque May Pole Dance which was performed by dancers costumed in peasant blouses and skirts. To the strains of "Home on the Range," Miss Guise led her court in a recessional from the "Western Fiesta."

INTERLUDES

"It is Nature who forces us to break forth into singing when our heart is moved by great and sudden emotion—in the wail of grief, in the exaltation of joy, in the sigh of melancholy longing."
